KIM SIEGERT NAMED DEPUTY REGIONAL ATTORNEY OF NLRB PITTSBURGH OFFICE

National Labor Relations Board General Counsel Ronald Meisburg today announced the appointment of Kim Siegert as Deputy Regional Attorney of the NLRB's Regional Office in Pittsburgh, PA (Region 6). Mr. Siegert had been a Supervisory Attorney in the Pittsburgh Office prior to his appointment. In his new position, he will assist Regional Director Robert Chester in the administration and enforcement of the National Labor Relations Act in Western Pennsylvania and 26 counties in Northern West Virginia.

The NLRB administers and enforces the National Labor Relations Act. It conducts secret-ballot elections to determine whether employees desire union representation and investigates and remedies unfair labor practices.

In announcing the appointment, General Counsel Meisburg noted:

Kim Siegert brings a great deal of enthusiasm and a strong record of performance to the position of Deputy Regional Attorney in Region 6. Throughout his 28 year career with the Agency, he has consistently demonstrated excellent legal skills and a keen understanding of the nature of our work. I look forward to his continued superior performance in his new position.

Mr. Siegert graduated with a B.A. degree from Ithaca College in 1976 with a major in Politics. He attended the University of Baltimore School of Law, where he served as Legislation Editor on the law school's Law Review. After being a law clerk for a judge on the Circuit Court in Maryland, Mr. Siegert started his career with the Agency as a field attorney in the Agency's Fort Worth, Texas office in 1981. He transferred to the Pittsburgh office in 1983 and became a Supervisory Attorney in 2001.
